Please share your thoughts and views in our research project!

What is this project studying?

Our study is led by Dr. Asheley Landrum at Texas Tech University. This study will help us learn more about different points of view that are shared via YouTube videos. What we learn may help people, and we hope to publish this study widely to make it as beneficial as possible.

What would I do if I participate?

In this study, you will be asked to watch a 5-minute long video and answer some questions. Some questions will be about the video and some questions will be about your own views and knowledge. At the end, we will ask you some standard demographic questions.

Can I quit if I become uncomfortable?

Yes, absolutely. Your participation is completely voluntary. Dr. Landrum and the Institutional Review Board have reviewed the questions and think you can answer them comfortably. You may skip any question you do not feel comfortable answering by choosing the "I prefer not to answer" option. You can also stop answering questions at any time. You are free to close the survey any time you wish; however, to receive the participant payment, you must at least click through till the end (even if you don't answer any questions). Participating is your choice. However, we do appreciate any help you are able to provide.

How long will participation take?

We are asking for 15 to 25 minutes of your time. Most people will finish in about 20 minutes.

How are you protecting privacy?

The questionnaires will not request any personal identifying information to protect your privacy. Even though the survey is anonymous, we ask that you answer as honestly as possible because we really want to learn more about how people think, and that requires our participants to provide honest answers.

How will I benefit from participating?

Besides providing the project with valuable information you will receive $2.00 for participating.

I have questions about this study. Who can I ask?

The study is being conducted by Dr. Landrum from the College of Media and Communication at Texas Tech University. If you have questions about the study, you can email her at asheley.landrum@ttu.edu. TTU also has a Board that protects the rights of people who participate in research. You can call to ask them questions at 806-742-2064. You can email your questions to the Human Research Protection Program at hrrp@ttu.edu or mail questions to the Human Research Protection Program, Office of the Vice President for Research, Texas Tech University, Lubbock, Texas 79409.

To participate in our study, you must be 18 years old or older, live in the United States, and use YouTube at least once a month.

Before we start with the main part of our study, we are hoping that you will help us better understand people's interests and uses of YouTube. This will require a quick activity.

First, how often do you watch videos on YouTube?

Our second question is how much time do people really spend using YouTube and how much does that vary?

Instructions:

1. First, using your mobile device (phone or tablet) navigate to YouTube's website or App and log in. If you do not have a mobile device, you can skip this part of the activity.
2. Second, once logged in, click on your picture/icon in the top right corner. This is your account menu.
3. Third, in the account menu, click "Time Watched"
4. Finally, YouTube provides you with your watch time in hours and minutes. We have provided separate text boxes for entering the number of hours and entering the number of minutes. The text boxes will accept only numerical values. If your watch time is under an hour, put a 0 in the hours section as opposed to leaving it blank.
